For the vast majority of science fiction worldbuilding, the major alteration to the laws of physics is allowing some species of faster-than-light propulsion for their starships. Others will add things like psionics/psychic abilities. But besides those, the rest of the laws of physics operate exactly as in real life.

The individuals in the nature swarm shows very poor abilities, yet the complex group behaviors can emerge in the whole swarm, such as migrating of bird crowds and fish schools, and foraging of ant and bee colonies as shown in Fig. 1. It's tough for an individual to complete the task itself, even a human being without certain experiences finds it difficultly, but a swarm of animals can handle it ...
