Does God Have A Sense

Answer: Perhaps the best indication that God does have a sense of humor is that He created man in His image (), and certainly people are able to perceive and express humor. The American Heritage Dictionary defines a "sense of humor" as "...The ability to perceive, enjoy, or express what is comical or funny." According...

And that strongly implies that He had a sense of humor. Assuming that Jesus is God and the Bible is inspired in a sense that the Bible is the word of God, it makes sense that God would have a sense of humor. Assuming that Jesus is not God and the Bible is not inspired and is fallible, the answer would be unknown.

Christians keep telling me he's very witty and funny. I have SUCH a fun idea for Him this morning... My washer is still not fixed. Matthew 18:19 says where two or more ask in his name, it shall be done on earth as it's done in heaven. I posted a question Friday, saying that if my washer is healed, I will stop saying ANYthing about Christianity on here and I and my children will go to church ...

The very fact that we humans have a sense of humor indicates that God does, too, for we are made in His image. (The existence of penguins, platypuses, and puppies also builds a strong case for God's having a sense of humor!) Jesus, as the Son of God, shares the Father's attributes, including a sense of humor.

Did Jesus ever laugh? - GotQuestions.org

It could be simple: God made Man in His image, so presumably He has a sense of humour just as we do. Conversely, He may lack a pointless appendix or a petulant gall-bladder, so maybe humour is something that we have but He doesn't.

Sure He does! Where else would we get ours, since we are made in His image, and a sense of humor is such a delightful gift? Humor, though, is culturally rooted (with the exception of mother-in-law jokes, which are apparently universal in any culture on the planet!). That's why most of us Westerners find it difficult to understand that Jesus was really a funny fellow.

I believe so. For one, if all things good are created or inspired by God, then comedy and humor have to be included in that category. It would seem to follow that God must have a sense of humor in order for Him to have created it in us. For another, theology would have us believe that if God did not create humor, then Satan did.
