Last weekend my daughter went out with some of her friends. One had come back to town after getting a job about 2 hours away and had left her bag in my daughters room. After everyone had gone to bed, they were still out and I snuck into her room and went through her friends bag. There was a Pink lace floral thing that she had worn at some point.

Since my mom has no hair at all there is no way to pin it in place. She did end up getting insurance to pay for it after alot of hoops. I think it took her almost a year. Lots of back and forth between her, doctors and the insurance. My husband and I put it on a credit card and then she paid us back when the check came through.
