I should first mention that there is a dark side to K-pop. Performers begin training in their teenage years. After signing 10 to 15 year contracts and moving into company dormitories, all aspects of their lives are controlled by their managers; even after the performers become household names, they receive a minimal portion of the profits of their success.

Phi Phi, Phang Nga, Krabi, Similan islands. The great thing about travelling by speedboat, is that you get to see a lot more! Although it's slightly more expensive than a normal tour, you get better value for money. You travel in smaller groups, visit places when the crowds have left, and often see places where the main tours don't visit.
