But I do wish I had traveled more, both alone and with my husband, before the kids came along. I've learned so many creative ways to make travel affordable, and I'd love to go back and apply that knowledge to my pre-kid years. 3. Get a higher degree. Many times over the years, I've wondered if I should have gotten my Master's degree or ...

5 THINGS I WISH I'D KNOWN -2ND TRIMESTER!

The topic I ended up choosing was “things I wish I had known” when I was at school. I was looking back through old presentations recently and was surprised to realise that I'd never written about it — and I thought it was interesting to look back at it through the lens of another five years. Here's the presentation:
