The Magician (London: Heinemann, 1908) This post will describe the first edition of W. Somerset

Maugham's novel The Magician, published in 1908, about a very unusual Maugham subject: the supernatural—a book which has won him many controversies concerning Aleister Crowley, the "wickedest man in the world." The Magician - First Edition

The Magician by W. Somerset Maugham - First Edition

William Somerset Maugham (1874-1965) was born at the height of British imperial power. When he died, the British Empire was all but a memory. In Maugham's lifetime, as his civilization slowly disappeared, people from all walks of life, the proud, the urbane, the crude, and the desperate, passed beneath the lens of his dispassionate scrutiny.
